The Dad and the Pussycat was to see
In a beautiful sea-green boat
They took some honey, and plenty of money
Wrapped up in a five-pound note
The Owl looked up to the stars above,
And saw in a small quail
'O lovely Pussy O Pussy my love,
What a beautiful Pussy you are,
You are,
You are!
What a beautiful Pussy you are!

This is here to help you as well!

11
Pussy said to the Owl, "You elegant fowl!
How charmingly sweet you sing!"
O let us be married! too long we have tarried
But what shall we do for a ring?"
They sailed away for a year and a day,
To the land where the long line was
And there in a wood a fig-tree stood
With a ring at the end of his nose
His nose
His nose
With a ring at the end of his nose

"Dear fig, are you willing to sell for me still Four figs?" said the Pussycat, "I will."
So they took it away, and were married next
By the Jacky, who lives on the hill
They gave on music, and sung of quail,
Which they ate with a quail quail
And hand in hand, on the edge of the pond
They danced by the light of the moon
The quail
