Judaism for schools

How lucky we were this week to welcome Ruth Jampel in to our school to teach us about some of the customs and traditions of the Jewish religion and to explain its shared root with Christianity.

It is vital in a world in which society is rapidly becoming fragmented and often distrustful of other people's beliefs to give our children the chance to hear from a member of that community in person.

At St Mary's we are working very hard to equip our children with the skills that they will need to live peacefully and happily throughout the whole of their lives.

The children had lots of fun in these sessions too!
